

EXECUTIVE PROFILEVitalie Stelea

It is unbelievable how quickly the electric vehicle industry is moving. I am glad to be at the forefront of something tremendous and use my passions to drive success.

Vice President of Investor Relations

Vitalie Stelea joins Blink Charging as the Vice President of Investor Relations. He brings an ambitious career of more than 15 years of finance experience, nearly 10 of which have been spent in the automotive sector. As a proven leader, Vitalie has had significant success with leading large initiatives related to finance, communications and investor relations.

Before joining Blink Charging, Vitalie served as Associate Director of Investor Relations for Ford Motor Company, where he focused on developing and implementing the company's investor relations strategy for electrification and vehicle software. In this role, he effectively managed the influx of information between the company, the public, its investors, and its stakeholders.

Vitalie holds an MBA in Finance & Strategy from the University of Michigan. While excelling in his career, he enjoys sharpening his craft with like-minded individuals at the Detroit Economic Club, where he serves as a board member.

Blink Charging

Founded in 2009, Blink is dedicated to slowing climate change by reducing greenhouse gas emissions caused by transportation. We're a driving force in the EV industry, paving the way for the growth and adoption of electric vehicles.
